

Albert Mensah INTRODUCTION

Our speaker today is a man who has come to be known as the Ambassador of Opportunity.

He was born in the West African nation of Ghana in abject poverty.

At the age of eight he began to dream of coming to America. He was ridiculed by his friends for his dream and told such a goal could never become reality.

Thirty years later he stands before us as an American Citizen, a graduate of an American College and one of the most powerful public speakers in the world.

His name is Albert Mensah and his message for all of us is to “Aim High”. Today we will hear that dreams are never built on low expectations and learn how the practice of Aiming High fueled Albert’s life-long dream of coming to America.

His energy will excite us. His, enthusiasm will inspire us. His stories will reveal 5 life-changing actions that will position us to recognize new opportunities for success and achievement.
