

Albert Mensah Introduction

Our Speaker today grew up in Ghana, West Africa; He walked four miles, barefoot, twice a day to carry firewood and water to his home- one without electricity or plumbing. He saw his first American movie at the age of eight.

Attending a U.S College became his dream, and after “practically living in the library” Albert received a full scholarship to McDaniel College, where he was also an All-American soccer player.

Please make some serious NOISE for Albert Mensah